

Customer: Harley-Davidson Motor Company

Location: Milwaukee, WI

Project: Lube Oil Cart

Project Information

Lube Oil Cart delivers motor oil under precisely controlled conditions to an engine under test. The cart filters the oil, heats or cools as needed, meters the flow and delivers oil to the engine at the desired pressure. With self-contained automatic controls, the portable cart requires only utility connections to support a variety of engine lubrication experiments.

